Two Injured on Expressway When Car Smashes into Tree

Two men were injured, one seriously, Tuesday morning when their automobile struck a tree along the expressway less than a mile from the northern city limits of Canyon.

Injured were Rios A. Miguel and William F. Redmond, both airmen stationed at Biggs Air Force Base at El Paso.

Redmond sustained a fractured jaw, fractured fore arm, and bad cuts about the head and lips. Miguel had abrasions about the face and an injured knee. They were treated at Neblett Hospital.

According to investigating highway patrolman James Cadenhead, the men were headed north on the expressway and first grazed a tree and hit the next head-on.

Miguel told Cadenhead he was driving at the time of the collision. "I threw a cigarette out the window and looked up as we hit the tree," he said.

Miguel said they were on leave from the air base and were going to New York. He added that both of them have relatives there.

The late-model Oldsmobile was estimated at a total loss.

Car Port Case Dismissed

Case of the State of Texas vs. E.T. Cummings has been dismissed by Wayland Angel, county judge, upon recommendation of A.W. Lair, criminal district attorney.

Lair said evidence in the case is now "moot."

Case was appealed from corporation court here where Cummings was fined for ordered construction of a car port over city property.

He was convicted on two separate counts of a violation of a building code. The city finally filed an injunction in district court enjoining him to move the structure.

Opportunity Plan Members To Elect Officers Saturday

Opportunity Plan members will elect officers at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at their annual meeting to be held in the auditorium of the fine arts building on the West Texas State College Campus.

Also to be announced at the meeting are the 10 winners of the annual A.N. Henson Memorial Merit Awards.

The awards are given to the students for the best job done on the Opportunity Plan, according to Milton "Buff" Morris, who operates the Opportunity Plan. The awards bring with them $100 in cash each to be used by the winners.

Morris stressed that anyone who contributes to the Opportunity Plan is a member and should attend.

Present board members include Arthur Glover, Mrs. Zell SoRelle, Roy Whittenburg, Mrs. R.A. Burnett, Harvey Allen, W.H. Brian and C.V. Woolley, all of Amarillo; Mrs. R.A. Neblett and Milton Morris, Canyon; Ivan Boxwell, Dumas; E.W. Boedeker, Levelland; Vernon Harman, Happy; Bobby Dawson, Borger; Carl Losson, Kress; and Mrs. Van Stewart, Perryton.

The annual dinner will be held at 5:30 o'clock in the west wing of the college cafeteria. Students on the Opportunity Plan will present a program.

At the business meeting Arthur Glover will present the annual audit report. Vernon Harman is chairman of the nominating committee.

Pete Pedro Named AP Back of Week

Pete Pedro has been named back of the week by Associated Press.

He is the first man to receive the honor this year. Also, it is the first time in the history of West Texas State College that a student has received this recognition.

Pedro is the nation's leading scorer this season.

Gets Top Price for Holstein Bull

Probably the finest Holstein bull ever to come out of the Panhandle area was sold recently by Richmond Hales for $12,500 to American Breeders Service of Carmel, Ind.

The bull, a Gold Medal Sire, is Pabst Chief son of Winconsin Leader and Pabst Dean Judy.

Hales bought the bull as a calf about 6 years ago. He recently was awarded the rank of Gold Medal Sire by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

The award is made through production of a sire's daughters.

Twenty-six daughters averaged 15,789 pounds of milk, testing 3.72 percent butterfat for an average butterfat yield of 587 pounds.

Sixteen daughters were paired with their dams on a comparison test and averaged 15,872 pounds of milk testing 3.71 percent butterfat for 589 pounds of butterfat. The dams produced an average of 12,610 pounds of milk testing 3.72 percent for 469 pounds of butterfat.

The comparison test gave Pabst Chief's daughters 3,262 pounds of milk greater production than that averaged by their dams and 120 pounds greater yield of butterfat.

Hales believes Pabst Chief is one of the all-time great bulls of the breed to come out of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico area.

Pabst Chief will be used in the American Breeder Service artificial breeding program and will sire calves all over the world.

Richmond says he is now using three of Pabst Chief's sons and has sold some 30 sons to other dairymen and breeders.

Republicans Sit In On County Budget Hearing

Republican leaders attended the Randall County budget hearing Monday, asked only a few questions and then departed without comment.

Representing the GOP were Neal Allen, Amarillo attorney and Randall County chairman, and E.W. Glenn, who lives 13 miles east of Canyon. He is county vice-chairman.

The budget hearing was held in regular session of commissioners court.

Allen acted as spokesman and asked County Auditor, E. T. Cummings to explain the purpose of reported surplus in county funds.

"This is for information and not an attack," Allen emphasized.

Amended estimate of the 1961 budget projects a surplus of $206,365.61 by the end of the year and $212,815.11 by the end of 1962.

Cummings summarized the budget. He noted that of the projected surplus $130,000 is needed to service the county's indebtedness. This would leave only $76,365.61 on hand at the end of the year.

The auditor said the county pay roll has been increasing at a rate of about 10 percent per year either as a result of pay increases or increase in personnel.

Commissioner Clarence Beckman reiterated at that point that he would vote against any blanket pay increases.

Cummings said his calculations on pay roll were based primarily on requests for pay increases made by county officials.

He said growth of the county is affecting the county pay roll. The auditor also pointed out that there has been only a 3-cent change in the county tax rate for operation of the county since 1938. The only other tax rate change since that time has been brought about for debt service.

Cummings said there was a change in valuations of property this year. Rural property valuation was raised for taxing purposes and city property lowered.

"If this hadn't been done we might have had a valuation of $35,000,000 instead of $33,000,000," he declared.

"Tax equalization is done in June," Cummings continued. "That is the first opportunity to adjust revenues."

"They could be adjusted and valuation lowered," Allen asked.

"That's right," Cummings replied.

"Now that you've given us some background, let's get back to my original question," said Allen. "What will the surplus be used for?"

"There's nothing in the budget for additions to the Amarillo annex," said Commissioner C.Y. Johnson. Cummings was instructed to add $15,000 for that project.

Work Commences On Drama Theatre

HELPING DAD can sometimes be a big job. Above, Craig Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Howard, helps with a remodeling job on the east side of the square. Craig's father is building an office building at the location of the old pool hall.

Survey Being Made Of Palo Duro Floor

Earl Parge of the firm of Hucker & Parge, Amarillo has been employed by the Heritage Foundation to do preliminary architectural work for the symphonic drama theatre in Palo Duro Canyon.

John Dorsey is running a topography survey in connection with the architectural work.

Dr. Crannell Tolliver is busy this week drawing plans and specifications for the proposed theatre in cooperation with W.A. Moore of the West Texas State College staff.

Moore visited some of the outstanding symphonic drama theatres of the nation during the past summer. He now is considered somewhat of an authority on the subject.

For Margaret Harper, who heads up the Heritage Foundation, beginning work on the theatre is at least a partial realization of her dream.

"It's nice to see some actual work being done," Mrs. Harper declared early this week.

In the meantime, the drive for funds to finance the $150,000 project topped $13,000. Mrs. Harper said about $12,000 was raised in Canyon.

Paul Green, Pulitzer prize winner, is writing the Heritage Foundation play to be presented in the outdoor theatre in Palo Duro. It will depict a portion of the history of the development of the Plains area.

Mrs. Harper almost single-handedly started the movement for the theatre about four months ago. She became enthusiastic over the prospect of such a theatre here after reading a Readers Digest account of Green's accomplishments with outdoor historical plays elsewhere.

Vandals Strike Two Tractors

Vandals hit tractors located southwest of Canyon sometime Friday night, according to the sheriff's department.

A butane line was broken on a tractor belonging to Erwin Meyer. Investigating deputy said the copper line had been twisted until it came into.

Another tractor belonging to Ed Davis underwent more serious vandalism.

Lights were smashed, the wiring was destroyed and control lines were bent.

Nothing was missing, according to the sheriff's department. They are investigating the incidents.

Merchants Underwriting Homecoming Barbecue

Canyon merchants are underwriting the annual homecoming barbecue to be held Saturday of next week at the old West Texas State College football field.

Bands and riding clubs participating in the homecoming parade will be served free, according to Roland Black, Chamber of Commerce manager.

Black said the barbecue will be served in the WT cafeteria in event of bad weather. He urged people planning to attend to buy tickets early. Tickets are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office at $1.25 each. The barbecue will be catered by Walter Jetton of Fort Worth.

Santa Fe Spends $1,000 To Collect $265 Bill

Two things the Santa Fe believes in -- keeping its trains on schedule and collecting a bill.

No expense is too great to do either one.

Attorneys for the railroad confided Monday that more than $1,000 has been expended since 1957 in an effort to collect $265.40 which Santa Fe officials believe is owed the railroad by Randall County.

Here's how the story unfolds. Henry Stafford wanted access to some caliche for which he required a road across the railroad right of way about 4 miles south of Canyon. He entered into an agreement with the Santa Fe for the crossing and put up $1100 to build it.

He was also to stand the expense of maintaining the road while it was open and pay for closing it when it was closed.

When Stafford was ready to close the road the county had caliche stockpiled at the site and wanted to keep it open. The county assumed Stafford's contract.

Before the county was ready to close the road a resident petitioned that it be made a permanent and public road. District Attorney A.W. Lair says that since the road was on a section line and at least a mile from another crossing it was the obligation of the railroad at railroad expense to provide a crossing.

After the road was made a public road the Santa Fe raised its communication lines to permit a permanent crossing. It contends that the county should pay for this project in the amount of $265.40.

Lair contends that the petitioning of the road as a permanent road terminated the Stafford contract in so far as the county is concerned. He further maintains that in raising its utility wires, the railroad was only performing a duty to which it was obligated by law and is due no reimbursement.

A vote of county commissioners found Commissioners B.R. Jones and C.Y. Johnson siding with the railroad and Clarence Beckman and Glenn Dowlen siding with Lair. Wayland Angel will cast the tie-breaker as county judge and has said he wants to study the case a bit before making a decision.

Railroad attorneys, Roy Snodgrass and A.J. Folley, appeared undisturbed. After all, they've waited four years for a decision already.

Chamber Committees Busy With Year's Work Programs

Several Chamber of Commerce committees have been busy this year carrying out the program of work of the local Chamber.

Probably one of the busiest committees has been the industrial and business development committee headed by Jerry LaGrone.

Other members of the committee are Troy Martin, Don Standley, A.W. Lair, Jim Christopher and Charlie Graham. That committee was instrumental in getting five Santa Fe Railroad families to move here from Wellington, Kan., when the railroad closed down its terminal there.

A brochure on business and industrial possibilities has been printed and is available to those who express an interest in moving here.

Members of the committee have been working with White Auto executives in an effort to secure a White warehousing facility here. At last report, Canyon still was in the running for the sprawling warehouse project.

Members of the retail promotions committee have encouraged merchants to modernize store fronts and have worked for uniform holiday closing dates.

Committee members already are busy planning Christmas decorations.

Chairman is T.A. Black. Other committee members are

O.W. Parker, Bob Bellah, Worth Jennings, Bill Brundige and G.C. Crosby.

The tourist development committee has some big projects in tow.

O.P. Cowart is chairman. Other members are Cecil Johnson, C.B. McClure, J.H. Buchanan and Bruce Blackaby. The committee has assisted in promotion of the symphonic drama project for Palo Duro Canyon designed to bring thousands here annually.

The Chamber also answers about 3,000 inquiries annually. The committee published a brochure for tourists and hosted a meeting of the state park board.

Accomplishments can be no bigger than the dream which preceded them. In this we believe. To do big a person must dream big.

A Canyon dreamer who dreamed a big one about four months ago already is beginning to see her dream take shape. She is Mrs. Ples Harper who dreamed of a symphonic drama in a huge outdoor theatre in Palo Duro Canyon.

Some work already is being done in the canyon this week on the proposed amphitheatre. Earl Parge of Amarillo is doing some preliminary architectural work there and John Dorsey is preparing a topography map.

We'll lay odds that Mrs. Harper gets to see the curtain go up on her production within the next two years. God give us more dreamers like Mrs. Harper who are willing to work and sacrifice and inspire the rest of us for those dreams.

There's a lot of talk among the dairy farmers lately about the proposed dairy festival here next June. The Canyon Chamber of Commerce is going to help promote it and we see no reason we can't have one of the finest dairy festivals in the state complete with a dairy princess contest.

Some of the dairy processors already have expressed interest in helping out.

Hilltop Views

BY DR. J. A. HILL

Since United Nations is the current hot spot in world affairs and since President Kennedy has issued a proclamation calling upon the nation to observe Oct. 24 as the birthday of the organization, hoping thereby to further enlighten our people on the nature, the purpose, and the achievements of United Nations, perhaps it is not out of order to continue the discussion of last week.

It is not to be understood that this column regards UN as a perfect instrument for the attainment of world peace; or, that it is by any means a faultless body. Human organizations have a habit of being faulty. Quite a lot of good Americans think the U.S. constitution is out-moded and should be over-hauled if not abolished. Our first national constitution (The Articles of Confederation) was so full of faults that it was thrown overboard and our present constitution was substituted for it. At the time our constitution was adopted liberals thought it too conservative, and conservatives thought it too liberal.

What this column does believe is that those who oppose United Nations owe it to the civilized world to come up with a better instrument for the preservation of world order.

Surely no one is so naive as to believe the world or any part of it would be better off without any form or degree of international co-operation. In view of the rapid upsurge of scientific discovery and invention it is unthinkable to this column that this or any other nation can fence itself in and refuse to be a part of the stream of human relations. National isolationism is as dead as a cadaver. Science and invention killed it and you and I use almost hourly some of the implements with which they did their deadly works.

In this connection it is noticeable that some people seem to believe that United Nations seeks or at least tends to establish one government for all the world and that the respective component nations would lose their sovereignty. The truth is that to our knowledge Russia is the only nation in the world today that seeks a one government world--and everyone knows that she favors it in the hope and with the avowed purpose to run the show. The free nations know full well that in such a world intellectual, moral, and spiritual values would be trod under foot and free man would cease to exist. It is such an eventuality that the Western Powers are seeking, through United Nations, to avoid.

It does not take an intellectual giant to see that the basic issue today between the East and the West concerns the nature of man. Is he only another beast of the field, which manages to survive in a tooth and claw environment--a pawn of power and cunning and greed and ruthless selfishness and contempt for every virtue that civilized men have ever conceived? Or, is he a creature of Providence with certain divine attributes that give him potential for the continuing improvement of his intellectual, moral, and spiritual endowment?

Is it not true that God created man in His own image and endowed him with certain inalienable rights? If Christ is a fraud and a falsehood then all of us would as well become beasts of the field and make Khrushchev king of the forest.

These are strong words, but they are as true as anything in human affairs can be. There is no use to be mealy mouthed about it, for here is the milk in the coconut, so far as the issue in the United Nations is concerned. For one, this columnist

Beckman pointed out that surplus money is needed in order to get favorable road work contracts. "If you don't have a surplus in your road and bridge fund you can't even get a bid on road construction," he declared.

Johnson said the county may spend some money on voting machines.

"I'd second the motion on that," Allen asserted.

Capital improvement to the court house is expected to run into several thousands of dollars of expense during the next year.

Commissioners delayed action on the $748,663.50 budget at the Monday meeting but are expected to act next week.

Contacted by newsmen Tuesday morning, Allen said he has no comment to make on the budget at the present time.

is not running away from the battle or hiding his head in the sand. He stands immovably with and for any agency that seeks the preservation and promotion of the dignity and sovereignty of the individual and his inalienable right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Such an agency, imperfect as it is, the Western Powers seek to make of United Nations. Russia and her satellite nations are on the other side.

In conclusion, there is no more realistic piece of literature in behalf of world organization for peace than the following poem by Don Blanding. It is hoped that its use here is not a violation of copyright.

SOLDIER WHAT DID YOU SEE?

What did you see, Soldier? What did you see at war?

I saw such glory and horror as I've never seen before.

I saw men's hearts burned naked in red crucibles of pain.

I saw such godlike courage as I'll never see again.

What did you hear, Soldier? What did you hear at war?

I heard the prayers on lips of men who had never prayed before.

I heard men tell their very souls, confessing each dark stain.

I heard men speak the sacred things they will not speak again.

What did you eat, Soldier? What did you eat at war?

I ate the sour bread of fear, the acrid salt of gore.

My lips were burned with wine of hate, the scalding drink of Cain.

My tongue has known a bitter taste I would not taste again.

What did you think, Soldier? What did you think at war?

I thought, how strange we have not learned from wars that raged before.

That victories won on battlefields are victories won in vain.

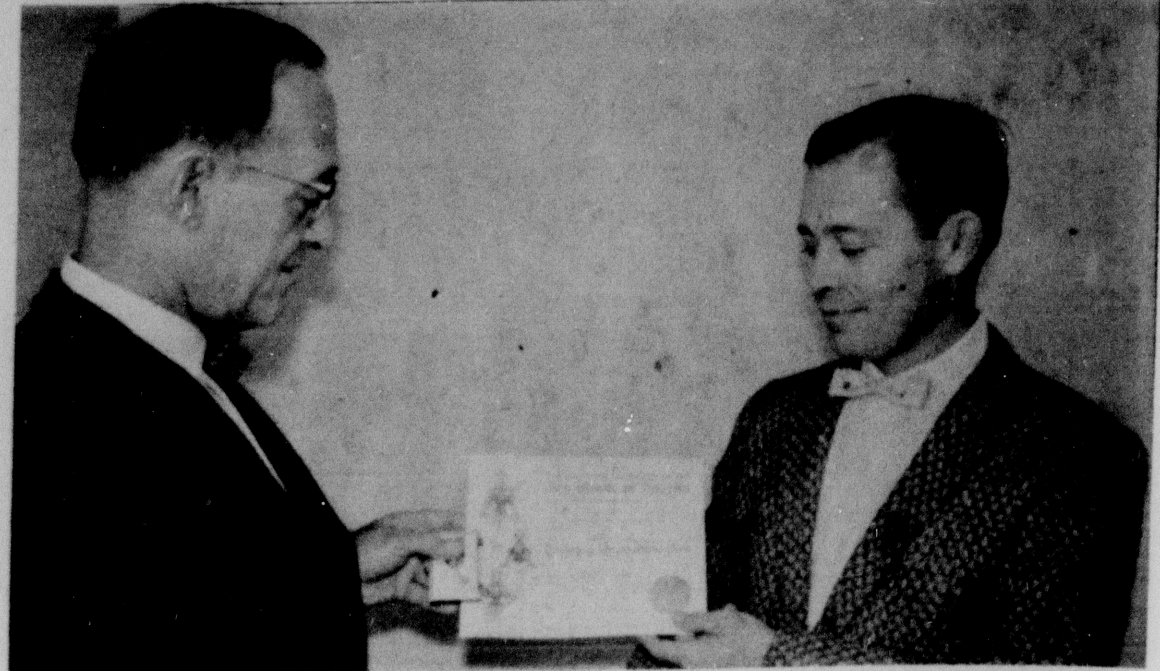

Unless in peace we kill the germs that breed new wars again.

What did you pray, Soldier? What did you pray at war?

I prayed we might do the thing we have not done before;

That we might mobilize for peace...not mobilize in vain.

Lest Christ and men be forced to climb stark Calvary again.

YOU, YES YOU, are the most common cause of FIRES!

Last year, in the United States alone, an estimated 2,000,000 fires resulted in losses estimated at $1,541,000,000...not to mention a tragic loss of lives that can never be replaced! Incredible as it seems, most of these fires were caused by people like you...average citizens who wouldn't dream of starting a fire deliberately, but who just got careless. Neither you nor your country can afford this wasteful loss of lives and property--be sure you don't give fire a place to start!

Eagles Facing Tough Opponent

Canyon Eagles will be facing their roughest opponent of the season Friday night, coach Jleep Webb said this week.

Playing at Buff Stadium, the Eagles will square off against the Floydada Whirlwinds.

Webb said their quarterback, Rodney Teague, has three full years of experience and is well into his fourth. "He is a very good passer and ground gainer," Webb pointed out.

This year the Floydada team has a 4-0 record. They are ranked No. 2 in the area.

Their line outweighs the Eagle line by 10 pounds per man. Webb said they have a heavier backfield, too.

They are capable of running the split T, wing T, straight T and spread.

Last year they defeated the Canyon team, 22-0.

Friends and Neighbors Honor Mrs. Meyer at Birthday Party

September 21 marked the eighty-first birthday of Mrs. Helene Meyer, and she was honored with a party celebrating the occasion given by Mrs. Ida Schuette in her home. Old time friends and neighbors were invited for a covered dish dinner and to visit.

Mrs. Meyer will leave soon to spend the winter in Carlsbad, New Mexico, with her daughters, Irene, now Mrs. Jack Wester, and Mrs. Erna Small. She will continue her hobbies of handwork, and quilting, with which may pleasant hours are spent. Mrs. Meyer is now making quilts for each of her thirteen grandchildren. She also has fifteen great-grandchildren.

She has spent the summer with Adelheid, now Mrs. George Albers, who lives east of Canyon. Other children are J.A. and Erwin, who live south of town, and Margarethe, now Mrs. W.J. Anderson, of Amarillo. A daughter, Louise, Mrs. Bradley Burrus, died in 1953. Mr. Meyer died in 1945.

Mrs. Meyer, her husband, Henry, and four children, J.A., Adelheid, Louise and Erna, came to Canyon in 1909 from Wisner, Nebraska. They purchased land about five miles east of town and converted a granary into living quarters. Irene, Margarethe and Erwin are Texans, born after the family settled here.

The Meyer family came to the Panhandle aboard one of the immigrant trains being brought in at that time. Also from near Wisner, were fellow passengers, Gustav Leseberg and Herman Kuhlman, who later brought their families to the Panhandle. The Nebraska people became acquainted for the first time aboard the train.

Upon being asked what the family found when they came to the Panhandle, Mrs. Meyer replied, "Prairie". She said that there were no trees, no homes, and no other families near them. Their only neighbors were a few bachelors, including Henry Miller, Paul Fluegal and Herman Wragge. The bachelors were very happy to welcome the family, and particularly enjoyed Mrs. Meyer's cooking.

A little later, when the country was settled with a few additional families, who were also of Lutheran faith, the need for a church was felt. After meeting in homes for several years, a church was erected in 1925 with the Meyer, Miller, Albers, Gerdson, Schuette, Leseberg, and Kuhlman families, among others, comprising the membership. The church has grown, until in 1953, the congregation bought their present building, located at the corner of Seventeenth Street and Third Avenue. Membership is now between 85 and 90 persons.

The Meyer children attended the Keonon school near their home. Cas Jennings was their first teacher. Both teacher and pupils had a language problem, since the children only spoke German. Adelheid remembers many tears shed before she mastered English.

Mrs. Meyer assisted at the birth of almost every child born into the community during the early years. She said there were more than twenty. When Mr. Meyer informed the children early mornings that their mother had been "called" during the night, they felt no need to ask "where"; they knew.

Memories include exciting ones such as sighting their first airplane flying over; happy occasions when they went for an all-day picnic in the Palo Duro Canyon, or Harding's ranch; and sad and trying times, when the flu epidemic caused illness and death in the community. The Stockton Dam is presently located on the site of the Harding Ranch.

Mrs. Meyer was born in Germany, and came to the United States with her parents when she was only eight years old. She had three brothers and three sisters. They asked why the family wanted to come to the United States, Mrs. Meyer replied that her brothers thought they would do better, and they wanted more "elbow room."

SCD Supervisors Submit Seventh Annual Report

Seventh annual report of the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District has been submitted.

Supervisors submitting the report include J.W. Spencer, C.V. Conaster, R.C. Sampson, Jr., Frank Begert and Marshall Rockwell.

Following is the text of the report.

The board has held 12 regular meetings this year, with an average attendance of approximately 83%, and one called meeting.

This district does not now publish a newsletter, but the local paper, The Canyon News, carries a news column. There were approximately 48 articles published by the local paper this year.

The Canyon News also published the district's 1960 annual report. There were four feature articles in the local paper on conservation practices.

There are around 890 land owners in the district with 546,460 acres of agricultural land and a total of 606,760 acres. At the present time we have 285 district cooperators with 210,889 acres of land under agreement. This year the district obtained 48 agreements. We have 119 basic plans on 104,084 acres. A total of 197 cooperators were serviced during the year.

The supervisors assisted in the preparation of the 1961 ACP program, and the Great Plains Conservation Program.

Most of our local churches observed Soil Stewardship Sunday with appropriate sermons, conservation talks by young people, and church bulletins printed on forms secured from the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts.

The Canyon Ministerial Alliance is very strong for soil and water conservation. A tour was held before Soil Stewardship Sunday with local ministers and others attending.

The local service clubs are active in soil and water conservation. Some have held farmers' days and others have had agricultural programs.

The district has purchased a one-page ad in the 1962 year book of the Randall County Home Demonstration Clubs. Each club has held conservation meetings.

Board members and their families attended a social and barbecue at Buffalo Lake during the summer. Also present were invited guests from SCS, ASC, Extension Service and their families. Picnic expenses were paid by board members.

During the year cooperators of this district have applied the following practices on their farms.

- 2 10-foot grass drills
- 1 12-foot land leveler
- 1 13-foot fertilizer applicator
- 1 Insect sprayer
- 1 weed sprayer
- 1 2-yard wheel scraper
- 1 inter-row legume seeder
- 1 5-foot shredder-mower
- 2 15-foot shredder-mowers
- 1 13'8" stubble mulch sweep
- 1 9-foot tumbling rotary sub-soiler

There is no watershed or flood prevention work in this district.

The district is still faced with the problems of management of irrigation water, terrace construction on dry land, and wind erosion. The people need to have a better understanding of soil conservation districts and their purposes.

The district received above normal rainfall again this year.

The board is assisting in the Great Plains Program, and thus far have 26 contracts in operation in this district. The Great Plains Program has been effective in getting more conservation on the land.

The board has received excellent cooperation from all agencies in the district.

TELEPHONE TALK
by Gene Adkisson, Manager

TO EACH HER OWN "PRINCESS"

The ladies of Canyon seem to have taken to the "Princess" telephone as though it were designed just for them. And in many ways, I guess it was.

For instance, it's little, light and easy to handle. It's styled to add a smart touch to any room in the house. And it lights up at night when you lift the receiver. This makes it especially attractive and practical as a night phone next to the bed. The "Princess" is available in five beautiful colors to suit every lady's good taste.

To make the princesses in your home even happier, give them a Princess phone for their bedroom. To order, simply call the telephone business office or ask any telephone service man.

TELEPHONE "PIONEERS" OBSERVE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the Telephone Pioneers of America. Back in 1911 the Pioneers' organization was founded. Telephone people with at least 21 years service with the telephone company were members then as they are now.

Today, membership in the association is just as exclusive. But the Pioneers have grown into a nation wide organization devoted to three things--loyalty to the telephone industry, devotion to community welfare and Christian responsibility.

At Southwestern Bell, one out of every five employees has 21 or more years in the telephone business, and is eligible to belong to the Pioneers. In addition, these years of experience meant that you can count on each member of the Pioneers to give you the best possible service--in a courteous, friendly manner.

Telephone Pioneers are proud of the years they've spent bringing you good telephone service. And they take pride, too, in their group's service to their community and to their fellow man--whether it's assisting the handicapped or devoting their time to worthwhile community projects.

BACK TO SCHOOL REMINDER

It's the responsibility of every one of us to drive safely the year 'round. But it's a good idea to be especially careful at this time of the year, particularly around school neighborhoods.

During their vacations, our children here in Canyon may have been so busy playing and having a good time that they may have forgotten some of the safety rules about crossing at corners, waiting at stop signs or traffic lights and other precautions.

So, while the kids are getting the hand of safety rules again, let's all be extra careful when we drive.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Warm Weather, Plains Impress Native Alaskan

When David Roberts came to Canyon September 11, it was his first time to leave his native Alaska. And since he flew all the way he did not see any of the scenery between points. Roberts, of Indian descent, is married to the former Lorena Stewart, whose parents live in Canyon. The Roberts have one son, David, who is two and one-half.

One of the first impressions Roberts had when he arrived was the heat. "I almost smothered for a few days," he said, "but now I am becoming used to the weather." Not that Alaska is all ice and snow. Even there temperature occasionally soars into the 100's.

"Several years ago the temperature reached 103 degrees above the Arctic Circle," he said. "And in the spring and summer it may stay in the 90's in many places."

He was a construction worker until recently. Due to strikes throughout the new state, work has dropped to a low ebb. Roberts classifies employment there into two categories.

"We have seasonal occupations and then there are those who work throughout the year." Seasonal work is defined as fishing, hunting, trapping and farming.

Usually year-round occupations are for the self-employed or government workers.

Roberts, himself, was once a trapper. For several years he would be flown into the interior and stay six or seven months.

"Where I would stay was a virgin country. There were no settlements and I would stay by myself."

Roberts said he would have to build his own shelter and any other convenience he desired.

From a central base he would hunt and trap for the winter.

But he did see a person once in a while in the interior. "I was trapping up the Yukon River about 300 miles and I came across another man's trap. I saw his track and started to follow him. Finally I caught up with him and we walked together for some distance."

"But it is quite rare to come into contact with another human being while on a trapping line."

He was also a great dog team enthusiast at one time. Roberts has worked with dog teams since he was a child.

"I guess it is like training a team of horses. We start with them when they are pups and work from there."

"A young dog starts on the team at the very rear and works forward as he improves. If he is smart enough he will eventually end up as lead dog."

Roberts said the lead dog is considered almost as smart as the driver. He is also the toughest dog in the team.

The team is voice-controlled. "All the dogs understand the commands," Roberts pointed out.

Dog teams are now a winter sport. Once they served as a vital means of transportation.

Racing is their biggest job today.

"Dogs are used until they are about 10-years-old," Roberts said. "After that, they are considered too old to work."

Fast pace for a team is 16 miles an hour. And this speed is only reached in short races.

Roberts said the races are usually over a much greater distance. He mentioned one which covered 70 miles.

"The drivers would go 20 miles a day for two days and then run the last 30 miles the third day."

In talking of farming Roberts said the Alaskan soil is very rich but they have a short growing season.

"I can remember newspaper pictures of cabbages with yard sticks across the tops. And turnips grow as big as wash basins."

Alaskan salaries are much higher than here. He said that a construction worker can expect at least $6,000 per year. Base pay for school teachers is $6,500.

Of course, living expenses are higher, too. Rent on an average two-bedroom home is about $150. Regular gasoline sells for 48 cents per gallon.

Mrs. Roberts said that food, especially fresh garden food, is extremely high, since most of the travel and shipping must be done by air.

When Alaska recently became a state Roberts missed the celebrations because he was in a hospital at the time.

"It theoretically provided more obs. gave us a free flow of trade and put more capital into circulation," he said.

As for plans on returning? "We don't have any definite plans at the moment," he said.

There are still some things Roberts has not seen or done in this area.

He has not ridden a horse yet. And he has not visited points to the south.

"Since I flew to this country, I did not see anything until I landed at Amarillo," he said.

"It was quite a change to see these vast plains. I was used to having vision restricted to one-half mile. Here one can see for miles."

Other things which seem unusual to Roberts are the number of people and the abundance of automobiles.

Mrs. Roberts was employed by the Public Health Service as a teacher. She is presently teaching at Happy.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Seaton and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Reed of Amarillo were in Canyon over the weekend visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Caldwell and assisting George Caldwell in the opening of his service station.

WINTER READY are Mrs. David Roberts and her two and one-half-year-old son, David. They are staying in Canyon this year after living in Alaska for several years. David's parka is made of muskrat, timber wolf, beaver and seal pelts, trimmed with calf. Mrs. Robert's parka is of velvet trimmed in Aleutian red fox fur.

Bufs Face Tough Match With Wichita U Here Saturday Night

As West Texas State starts preparing for the invasion of U. of Wichita Saturday night in Buffalo Bowl, local and national statisticians are working overtime on the amazing feats of the sensational Buffalo sophomore scatback--Pete Pedro.

The 5-7, 160-pound Lynn, Mass., speedster took over the national scoring leadership among major college backs Saturday by scoring six touchdowns in the 56-27 win over Texas Western. That ran his two-game total to nine TD's and 54 points. In scoring the 36 points against Texas Western, Pistol Pete tallied more markers than last year's leading Buff scorer for the entire year. Jim Densman was high in 1960 with 30 points.

Pedro gained a fantastic 228 yards rushing in 18 carries against Western, boosting his two-game total to 335 in 26 carries. That figure ranks him second in the nation in rushing, 15 yards behind a Furman back who has played three games. Pedro's two game rushing total is 28 yards more than the 1960 Buff rushing leader could muster in 10 games.

Pedro's prolific scoring is helping the Buffaloes compile some fantastic team figures, also. Coach Joe Kerbel's offensive-minded team has averaged 55.5 points in the first two victories and have compiled an average of 447.5 yards total offense per outing.

After snaring their first Border Conference win over Western and the first victory over the Miners in 11 years, the Buffaloes take on the defending Missouri Valley Conference champs, U. of Wichita. The Shockers, again the favorites for the MVC crown, will bring a 2-1 record to Buffalo Bowl. They defeated Toledo, 12-7, and U. of Cincinnati, 21-14, while losing a 21-7 decision to Arizona State U.

Coach Hank Foldberg's Shockers handed the Buffs one of their worst defeats of the 1960 campaign, 35-14, and West Texas players have not forgotten that Thanksgiving Day defeat. The teams are tied, 1-1, in their short series.

Conatser Infant Interred Sunday

Graveside services for Cynthia Ann Conatser, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Conatser, were conducted Sunday at 4 p.m. at Dreamland Cemetery, the Rev. Aaron Mann, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, officiating.

The infant died Friday, September 29, in St. Joseph's Hospital at Bryan.

Conatser is a student at Texas A&M College.

The infant's mother is the former Maurine Bentley of Amarillo.

Survivors, in addition to the parents are paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conatser of Canyon; and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bentley of Amarillo. LaGrone Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Busy spot during any district court session or grand jury meeting is the district clerk's office. Here, all records of proceedings and legal decisions or actions are filed.

Headed by Mrs. Mavis Hill, only official elected at large who lives in Amarillo, the office is 11-years-old.

Though Mavis is a resident of Amarillo, both she and her husband are originally from Canyon. Mavis attended the first grade through college here. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Harden, are Canyon residents.

She is the second district clerk since the office was established.

"I was approached by several people who asked me to run for the office," Mavis said in regard to her political career. "I thought it over and finally decided to run."

What are some of the major duties of her office?

"I would say that divorces and child support payments take up most of our time."

"We have to type the minutes and all orders and judgments signed by the judge."

In the case of divorce, the office notifies the defendant and sometimes that's quite a job.

A citation is issued and the sheriff's department tries to find the defendant. If they do not succeed, a citation by publication is printed in the newspaper four successive times.

Though the sheriff's office makes actual contact with persons involved in each case, the clerk's office must fill out and file all forms.

The papers in each case are recorded and filed from start to finish.

Then, when child support is granted by the district judge, the payments are made to the registry of the district court and the money is sent to the clerk's office. It is then mailed out to the proper person.

In case a payment or payments are missed, the person receiving money has a right to start contempt proceedings and action begins again. Person refusing to pay must be found, brought before the court and proper arrangements are made.

Her office handles more than $6,000 monthly in child support payments.

"Though we receive money throughout the month, the bulk of the payments pour in the first and fifteenth," she explained.

Any civil suit involving over $1,000 must be filed in the district clerk's office. Suits ranging from $500 to $1,000 have concurrent jurisdiction with county and district courts.

In case of a lawsuit, the person being sued must be notified by citation issued by the district clerk that he has a chance to file an answer.

All instruments pertaining to a case are filed. This means that there may be a page or volumes of writing the district clerk files for a case.

All felony crimes are filed in district court. Records and minutes of these trials are also kept by the clerk's office.

Also, the district clerk works closely with the jury commission. The commission meets in the district clerk's office and picks the grand juries, petit juries and special venire.

The lists are prepared, taken to the sheriff's office, mailed out and the work begins for the clerk's office.

Records are kept on the jury-men and pay checks must be issued.

Mavis Hill says that perhaps the most pleasant matter her office handles are child adoptions.

"We obtain and file proper records for these adoptions," she said.

In explaining duties of her office, Mrs. Hill said there are approximately 100 different forms her office may fill out.

"The average case requires only four or five though," she explained.

Working with Mrs. Hill are Mrs. Shirley Donnell and Mrs. Sherry McDowell.

deSchweinitz Reviews New Novel

A review of "The Dollar Diploma," a new novel by Georg Mann, has been written for The American Association of University Professors Bulletin by Dr. George de Schweinitz, professor of English at West Texas State College.

The novel is basically a criticism of the "big" university, which Dr. de Schweinitz feels is the University of Chicago, Mann's alma mater.

Confusion as to whether there is anything worth fighting for in the academic profession is what Dr. de Schweinitz finds to be the greatest weakness of the novel.

Dallas is a city that all of Texas can be proud of. From October 16 to 28, Neiman-Marcus will join with Dallas to celebrate "The American Fortnight." Seven famous companies will help sponsor this fabulous review of American traditions in Dallas.

A special "American Fortnight" poster has been designed by the store's art staff and has been distributed internationally.

A revolutionary new electric guide will be introduced at Neiman-Marcus to help visitors tour the store during the Fortnight. The "Acoustiguide" is a unique tape playback device much like a transistor radio which permits its user to carry it along and be given a complete guided tour through an exhibition area. Two persons may use an Acoustiguide together!

The highlight of the "Thunderbird Ball," benefiting the Dallas Theater Center, and sponsored by Neiman-Marcus and Ford Motor Company, will be the presentation of fashions by two of America's most famous designers—Mr. Norman Norell and Mr. James Galanos. Their models will be brought from New York and California. Mr. Pierre DuPont, Secretary of DuPont Company will be principal speaker at the Dallas Rotary Club on Wednesday at noon of the first week.

One special event will be the opportunity given to amateur photographers to come on two different evenings to photograph the various outstanding displays in the store. They may also photograph the models as they feature special designers' work. Famous designers will be guests in the store and will be showing their most exclusive collections.

There will be salad tasting suppers, country fair suppers, and other all-American type of meals served in the Zodiac Room of the sixth floor of Neiman-Marcus.

Mark Schorer, famed American author whose latest work, "Sinclair Lewis—An American Life," was chosen for Book-of-the-Month Club as its October selection, will speak at a special luncheon for writers of the area.

The entire city of Dallas will pay tribute to America in various ways. The Dallas Public Library will feature the theme, "The Public Library, An American Landmark."

The Dallas Museum of Fine Arts will feature an American exhibition entitled "Directions in 20th Century American Painting."

Neiman-Marcus will have American flags in the third floor windows. Nine-foot carved eagle pedestals will be placed atop each display window in the store.

The first floor will feature "Star-spangled genius of the United States." Walls will be painted white with pale blue columns. Hundreds of three-dimensional gold stars will glitter against the white walls, and red and white flowers will be placed throughout.

UN Committee Information Push Planned

Canyon United Nations Committee will direct a campaign to inform local residents concerning the United Nations between now and Oct. 24, which is the UN birthday.

This information came from Dr. J.A. Hill, committee chairman. He said the local committee is affiliated with both the state and national organizations.

Dr. Hill said the committee will make no effort to convert, merely to inform.

He said the aim of the committee is to present programs before civic groups between now and the UN birthday.

Committee members include Joe Gibson, Mrs. Dan Sanders, Rev. Newton Starnes, Dr. Lowell Harrison, Mrs. Raymond Raillard, Dr. Hill, Miss Carthula Walker, Johnny McBroom, and Col. E.H. Lindsey.

papered in glittering blue foil. The escalators leading from the first and second floors will be covered replicas of San Francisco cable cars. Recording of actual cable car bells will be played and San Francisco murals will be viewed from the sides.

A wall of Coca-Cola bottles will cover banks of the third floor elevators. Mounted at right angles to the wall, the bottles will be dramatically lighted. It is estimated that the wall will weigh 9,500 pounds and will be comprised of 10,640 bottles!

On the fourth floor the decor will be designed around the Yankee Clipper and the Jet Age. Rare collections may be viewed on this floor.

In the fifth floor Oak Room, Miss Edith Halpert of the Downtown Gallery in New York will be showing an exhibition of American Folk Art prior to the 20th Century.

This glimpse of America seen in our own state should make us very proud. It sounds very spectacular and I'm sure I have only told a small part of the many city-wide plans but I do hope some of you get to visit there this month.

Who says that school is all work and no fun?

Certainly not Mrs. Lee Foster, Canyon High School English and speech teacher, nor the students in her third period class. Fun took the spotlight in this particular class last Friday.

The students in the class took that time to honor Mrs. Foster on her birthday by observing the usual customs—singing and the presentation of a gift. But though gift giving is usual, the gift presented to Mrs. Foster was not usual, especially for a teacher. The gift given Mrs. Foster was gum—not one ordinary piece of chewing gum—but thirty pieces of bubble gum.

According to the students, a special teacher deserves a special gift.

The next five school days will be very busy ones for Canyon High students.

Friday, October 6, will mark the end of the first six weeks of school and the end of three days of six weeks tests. Friday night Canyon will host Floydada in a football game at 8 p.m. in Buffalo Stadium.

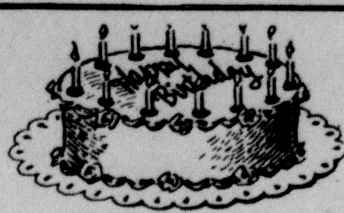

Tuesday, October 10, is the date set for "Daddy Date Night," an annual event of the Future Homemakers of America.

Wednesday, October 11, a choir assembly will be held at 10:15. Wednesday afternoon the Sophomore Class will take the first part of the Differential Aptitude Test.

Thursday, October 12, at 7 p.m. in the high school gymnasium C.H.S. homecoming will officially begin with a pep rally to which everyone, especially ex-students, is invited and urged to attend.

Also on schedule for Thursday are Canyon and Friona freshman and B team football games at 3:30 and 6:30 respectively. The last part of the Differential Aptitude Test will be given sophomores Thursday morning.

Western Week Kicks Off WT Homecoming Activities

West Texas State College students will play the prelude to the Homecoming celebration set October 14, by the traditional observance of Western Week activities.

For two days before the return of ex-students to the campus, current students set the mood by donning western garb, growing beards, whooping it up in a special assembly, and working late hours in preparing floats for a parade and decorating the campus.

A Homecoming Day calendar of events has been released, and activities designed for exes, visitors, and students will include the time-tested favorites of a parade, barbecue, club and class reunions, football game, and a dance.

Registration for visitors and exes will begin at 9 a.m. in the Student Union Building and continue until 3 p.m. Club teas, smokers, and parties will be scheduled throughout the day prior to the parade, which will follow a line of march through Canyon streets, starting at 3:30 p.m.

The parade will again feature a number of area riding clubs, high school bands, and floats entered for prize competition by WT campus clubs and Canyon merchants.

With Walter Jetton of Fort Worth catering the barbecue for the third year, visitors and exes will begin their evening meal at 4:30 p.m., with service continuing until 6:30. The barbecue will be held at old Buffalo Stadium on the campus.

The Buffaloes will meet Border Conference favorites, the Arizona State University Sun Devils, in a conference clash at 7:30 p.m. in new Buffalo Bowl, with one of the largest crowds of the season expected.

Nationally known Charlie Spivak and his orchestra will be playing for the dance, held each year following the football game and closing out Homecoming activities. The affair for both exes and present students will begin at 10 p.m., immediately following the game, and continue through 1 a.m. Admission will be $1.50 a person.

Barbecue tickets will go on sale next week, and they will cost $1.25 a plate. WT students will be able to use one punch on their meal tickets in exchange for a ticket.

Traditional Homecoming assembly October 12, featuring the crowning of Homecoming Queen, will be the first event of Western Week observance. Students will also have a bonfire and pep rally October 13, followed by a western dance.

Eagles Whiz Past Sunray 46-6 to Break Losing Streak

Canyon Eagles broke a three-game losing streak with a smashing victory over the Sunray Bobcats, 46-6, in Buff Stadium Friday evening.

It was the first win for the Eagles since the first game of the season.

Predicted to be a tough match the game went nip and tuck at the beginning but the Eagles picked up and maintained an edge when Doug Ward returned a Bobcat punt 70 yards for a touchdown.

Harry Lisle kicked the conversion point.

During the second quarter of the game the Eagles chalked up two more touchdowns for a substantial lead.

First came when center Ronny Harris snagged a Sunray aerial and returned it 44 yards. Lisle again kicked the conversion.

Then Gail Cox tossed to Eddy Poole in a play covering 56 yards and bringing the Eagles' third touchdown. Lisle made the kick good.

Following the half Elmer Oberst, fullback for the Eagles, got scoring underway again when John Johnson, a halfback, ran over from the 10-yard-line. Their try for an extra point failed.

On the kick off back to Canyon, Lisle took the ball on the Eagle 20 and scampered all the way back to the goal. He kicked the conversion point.

In the fourth quarter, fullback Bill Phillips carried the ball over for the Eagles from the 4-yard-line. Conversion try failed.

He again ran over a touchdown from the 14-yard-line bringing final score of 46-6.

The Eagles made another touchdown during the fourth quarter which was called back on a penalty. Larry Breitling passed to Larry Holman but the play was cancelled.

The Eagles will meet Floydada here Friday in their next match.

Home inspections conducted by the Canyon Fire Department will be Wednesday, October 11, according to Charlie Foster, fire captain.

WT President To Speak At Hereford

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State College will be principal speaker at a Top of Texas District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs meeting to be held in Hereford Thursday of next week.

Foster said check lists were sent home with public school students for parents to return in case they desire to have their homes inspected. "Others will have to call me at OLS-4741 to make arrangements for an inspection," he said.

Last year there were 923,000 fires in the United States and Foster said there were 310,000 homes destroyed or badly damaged.

"Since the first of the year, we have had 73 fires in Canyon," he added.

Of these, 36 were caused by burning trash, 6 were caused by children playing with matches, 2 from smoking in bed, 10 were car fires and 19 were miscellaneous causes," he pointed out.

The home inspections will be a service of the fire department. "We are just checking," Foster emphasized. "We are not looking for violators."

Some of the things firemen will be looking for are flammable liquid storage facilities, faulty wiring, trash barrel locations and heating systems.

Bufs Roll Over Texas Western 56-27

In what started as a nip and tuck battle, West Texas State College Buffaloes, led by speedy Pete Pedro, smashed Texas Western College Saturday evening 56-27.

This was the first victory for the Bufs over the Miners in the last 11 tries.

During the first period of the game, it looked like the Miners might give the Bufs their first defeat of the season, but sparked by brilliant running on the part of Pedro, the WT squad forced ahead for their second straight win of the season.

WT kicked off to the Miners to open the game and they took the kick in the end zone for a safety. In three plays they had only gained five yards and were in a punt situation.

John Furman, quarterback for the Miners, took the snap, dropped back to kick, and was downed on the TW 7-yard-line.

The Bufs, set up in excellent scoring position, whipped over the goal in two plays. Jerry Richardson, left halfback, went for four yards around the right side and Ollie Ross, fullback, made the necessary plunge.

Charlie Williams kicked the extra point for an early 7-0 lead in the game.

The Miners took the kick off and began a series of drives to the 46-yard-line. Again punting, the ball went over to WT on their own 8-yard-line. On their first play, WT fumbled and the Miners latched on to the break, recovering the ball on the 1-yard-line.

Fullback Don Boyce went over and then kicked the conversion point to tie the game at 7-7 with only half of the first quarter gone.

Both teams played a tight defensive game in the remaining minutes of the quarter.

TW took over the ball on the Buff 44, following a punt by Bill Lorange. In nine plays the Miners went over the goal to give them a lead. Furman carried over from the 3. Conversion kick was good and the Bufs were faced with a seven-point disadvantage.

Receiving the kickoff with only 28 seconds left in the quarter, right half Jerry Logan scooted the ball from the 12 to the 25.

The ball was then given to Pedro for a 75-yard-dash and another six points for the Bufs.

Williams kicked, evening the score.

In the second quarter the Miners could not start a drive after receiving the kick and punted out on the fourth down.

The Bufs took over on their own 44 and in a series of yard-netting plays went over for a lead in score.

Pedro carried over the touch down from the 2-yard-line on a left end run. Williams again hit on the conversion kick.

Texas Western, not to be outdone, took over the kick off on their own 20. Chuck McCalmont, fullback, hit the Buff line for a gain of five yards.

Andy Springer, left half, swept around the left side on the next play for a gain of 27 yards.

Then Furman tossed to left end Paul Paxon for a 48-yard gain and touchdown. Boyce made his conversion kick good to tie the score at 21-21.

The Bufs received the kick off on their 20 and Logan returned it to the 32. In four successive plays the Bufs made a first down with inches to spare. Pedro then received the ball, shot around right end for 53 yards and a six-point lead.

Williams added another point to the lead on the conversion kick and the Bufs were out in front for the rest of the game.

The Miners failed to make an offensive showing after receiving the next kick off and the Bufs took over the ball on their own 10 after the Miners punted out from their own 37.

Pedro ran around right end for a 12-yard gain and a first down. Dawson then tried a pass but it failed. Lorange charged downfield on the next play to the Miner 3-yard-line.

Lorange hit the right side of the line for a two-yard gain. Dawson then made another unsuccessful pass attempt.

Jerry Richardson then smashed over for the score and Williams hit his fifth consecutive conversion kick for the game.

Coming out of the half the Bufs punted out of fourth down situations twice.

On the second punt, the ball went out on the TW 20. The Miners fumbled the ball on their second play and WT recovered on the Miner 26.

Lorange went over the right side for three and Pedro made the rest. Williams kicked the conversion for a strong 49-27 lead.

In their final score the Bufs went down to the Miner three where Pedro was handed the ball for another touchdown.

Williams made his eighth conversion kick good for final game score of 56-27.

passed to Joe Grant, setting the ball up on the Miner five-yard-line. Lorange went over the right side for three and Pedro made the rest. Williams kicked the conversion for a strong 49-27 lead.

In their final score the Bufs went down to the Miner three where Pedro was handed the ball for another touchdown.

Williams made his eighth conversion kick good for final game score of 56-27.

WT Students Air Views On City

What can the people of Canyon do to make Canyon a better place for West Texas State College students.

Answers from six students interviewed ranged from "Build a fancy eating place" to "Provide transportation of some sort for students without cars to get to and from the campus to the downtown area."

Mimi Thedford, elementary education sophomore from Tyler, observed that she feels that Canyon stores close too early. She said youngsters simply do not have time to get down town to do any extensive shopping before stores close.

She also said she wishes sheet music were available in Canyon and that the town had a wider selection of record albums.

Mimi also complained that The Canyon News is not as available on the campus as it should be.

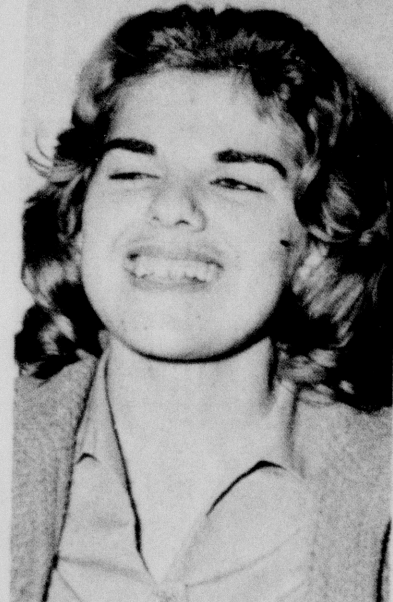

"Canyon people have always been nice to college students," Mimi concluded.

"I'd like to see a city bus running all over Canyon," said Larry Baker, music education sophomore from Amarillo. He said he feels the need is greater for transportation from the campus to the downtown area.

He also feels that downtown stores should stay open later to accomodate students. "A lot of kids would have to skip the evening meal just to go down town and shop," he declared.

Larry also would like to see a fine motel or hotel construc-in on the city bus bit. "There are a lot of students who have cars but there are a lot who don't," she declared.

"Canyon needs a lot more jobs for students," she added. Jim Conner, tall, lanky basketball player from Childress, says he thinks a bus is needed from the campus to the court house square.

"It's a pretty long walk from the campus down town and back," he declared.

JIM CONNER

GEORGEA MANDIS

BOB BLACKBURN

Jim thinks the employment situation for students in Canyon is fairly good.

Georgea Mandis, Amarillo elementary education major, would like to see a wider selection of merchandise in all areas. She is especially interested in women's shoes in the medium price bracket.

Georgea says she wishes the community had more places to go and she, too, would like to see a fancy restaurant built.

An interview with Bob Blackburn, a business junior from Borger, revealed that Canyon's public relations with students could stand some beefing up.

"This is my first semester here and until now I have not been aware of Canyon as a town," he declared. "I have always thought of it as West Texas State College."

Fishing at Conchas Lake over the weekend were O. W. Parker, Jr. and son, Craig, and Dr. W. J. Wooten and Ronnie.

Britt Kaufman of Lamesa spent the weekend in Canyon visiting in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Bolton.

Mrs. Brasher New Math Instructor at College

Mrs. Treasure Kees Brasher of Canyon has been appointed instructor in mathematics at West Texas State College.

2nd Lt. and Mrs. Melvin Cunningham of Fort Worth, are visiting here in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cunningham. Lieutenant Cunningham is to report to Fort Benning, Georgia, October 16. He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, where he received his R.O.T.C. commission.

Mrs. W. E. Laughter of Amarillo visited Friday in the home of Mrs. Edith Livesay and with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stokes.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Duncan and daughter, Renee, of Borger, were weekend visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Prichard. Don is an art instructor in Borger Junior High School. Mrs. Duncan is the daughter of the Prichards.

She is a 1960 graduate of WT and has lived in Canyon since receiving her degree. Mrs. Brasher, whose home was Dumas, was a member of Alpha Chi, national honor society, and was named to represent WT in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

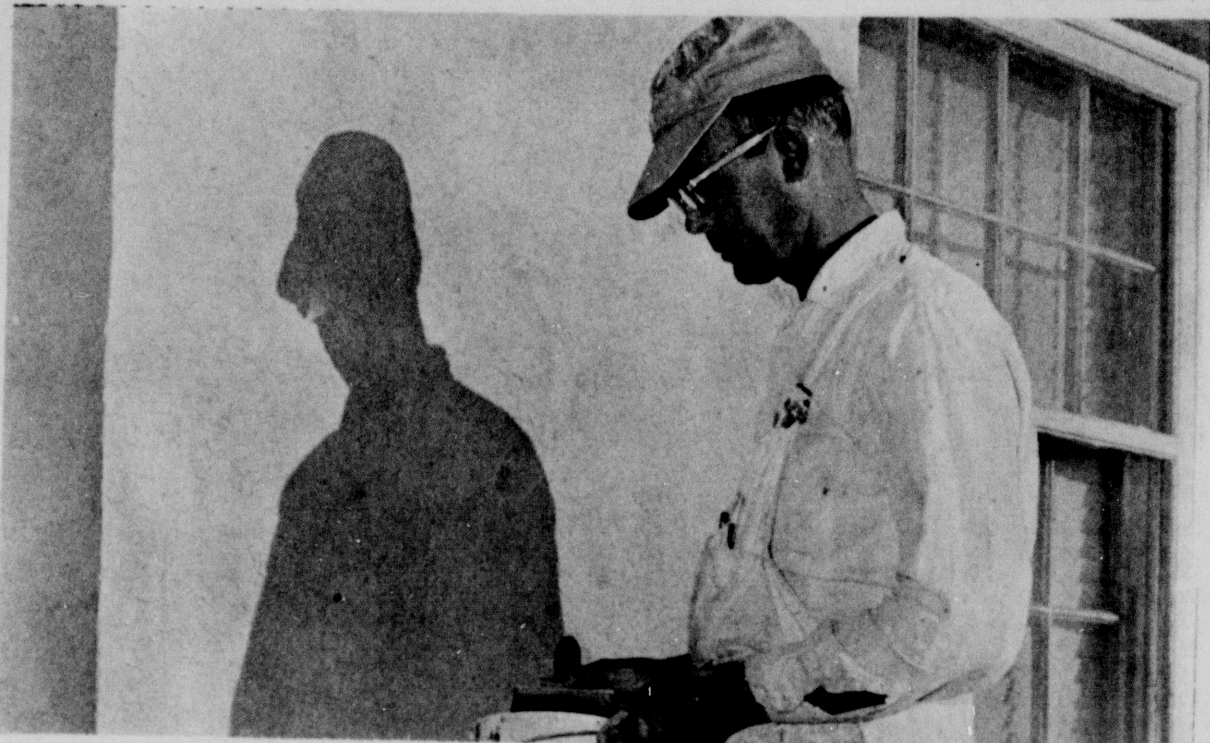

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Kees, Star Route, Channing. She and her husband live at 1702 Eighth Avenue, and they have a daughter, 1.

Robert L. Seals, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Seals of Canyon, Tex., will return, Sept. 25, aboard the destroyer leader USS John S. McCain, to Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, after six-and-one-half months service with the powerful Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Crawford Ruthart

The Canyon News pays a visit this week upon Crawford Ruthart Painting Contractor, one of Canyon's largest! Mr. Ruthart has been in the painting business about 9 years now. The past 4 years he has been a contractor.

Crawford seems to have many friends and satisfied customers in Canyon for we have heard of him many times within the past year. When we interviewed him this week he was painting one of our city's newly re-decorated buildings.

An interesting facet of his business is the fact that in addition to painting he also specializes in paper hanging, perforating, remodeling and repair work. Quite good at it so we hear.

Ruthart gives free estimates, gladly and also handles insurance jobs. "I guarantee a satisfied customer" he stated, going on to stress the high quality he and his workmen strive for.

In addition to Ruthart, the staff consists of D.C. Lindley, J.D. Ruthart and Sherman McCarter.

Ruthart lives at 608 8th Avenue with his wife, Margaret, and 3 girls Sharon, Karen and Donna.

In closing Mr. Ruthart reminded us that they do both interior and exterior work and that no job is considered too large or too small!

For quality work at reasonable prices, why don't you call them. That's OL5-3061 during the day or in the evening, too!
